To: Chief Lee Harmon

The following is the Covington School Resource Officer Report for February 2023.

February is a short month in the school due to a few long weekends but I was still able to have several positive interactions with our staff and students.

On February 1, I taught INDEPTH vape class to one student.

On February 3, I worked the boys' basketball game as they got there first conference win against Riverside.

On February 8, I helped a few of our Ag. Students with there public speaking contest. I listened to their speeches that they would go on to give at the District level. The speeches that I was able to listen do were great and they did an awesome job presenting. I enjoyed helping them practice.

On February 16, I sat in on the Junior High Honor Society ceremony. It was well put together and it was good to see our students being successful in leadership and academics.

On February 17, I went to Mrs. Hausfelds classroom as her math class made a cardboard putt-putt course. I was able to play put-put with the students and I believe they had a lot of fun with it.

The week of February 20 through the 24 was FFA week. I was able to participate in the annual staff breakfast. Our students prepared pancakes, eggs, and sausage. It was very good and I enjoyed eating with the students.

The SRO activity report continues onto the next page.
