

VILLAGE OF COVINGTON, OHIO
PROCLAMATION 01-23

Village of Covington Police Officer of the Year – Tim Cline

Whereas, it is the desire of the Village of Covington, Ohio to recognize Sergeant Tim Cline, for his dedication and commitment to the Village of Covington Police Department, his community, and his profession as he received the award as Police Officer of the Year for the Village of Covington 2022; and

Whereas, Sergeant Cline was hired in July 2015 and has received numerous commendations and letters related to his good work; and

Whereas, Sergeant Cline demonstrates strong character, leadership, and empathy and continually receives positive feedback for his interactions with the public; and

Whereas, Sergeant Cline's work ethic, character, and continued effort to grow as a public servant demonstrates his leadership ability for our police department. His continued desire to make Covington a safer community through hard work and dedication to the department is why he was nominated for Officer of Year; and

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, by the Village Council and the Mayor of the Village of Covington, Ohio, that Sergeant Tim Cline is hereby commended for his accomplishment as:

Police Officer of the Year, 2022.

PROCLAIMED: APRIL 10, 2023

Edward L. McCord, Mayor

